Danica to sell the bambu line in Canada

Danica is now the exclusive distributor for bambu in Canada. bambu designs contemporary products for the kitchen and home created from renewable materials. bambu has been recognized internationally for its innovative award-winning products, unique business approach, and for the value and focus that the company places on people and the planet. The company contributes financially to numerous non-profit environment groups through its membership with 1% For The Planet. bambu is also an approved member of the Co-Op America network of socially responsible businesses. The line was officially launched at the recent CGTA Gift Show.

Swissmar unveils the Prepara assortment

Swissmar has been named exclusive Canadian distributor for the innovative new gadget line from Prepara. Launched at the recent gift show, the line includes the Herb Savor, below, and the Trio-Tri blade peeler, bottom. The Herb Savor is designed to extend the life of herbs up to three weeks because the stems sit submerged in a water well. The new peeler is ideal for fruits or vegetables and comes with a removable blade cartridge that's dishwasher-safe. Other Prepara items include a cookbook holder and several ice cream gadgets.
