

the best!

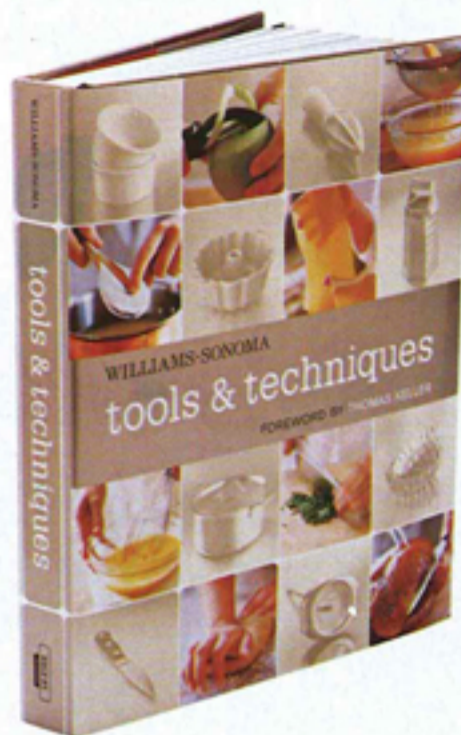

FOR THE KITCHEN

A French door oven, a home for fresh herbs, and shades you can sponge clean...

Produced by SAMANTHA
EMMERLING

1

4

2

3

5

8

6

7

1. Platter

Add a little Tuscan charm to your table with this imported Italian serving tray. 13" x 18", $169. VIETRI: 800-277-5933; vietri.com.

2. Reference Book

Everything you need to know, and then some—500 classic cooking tools, techniques, and recipes in one book. $35. WILLIAMS-SONOMA: 877-812-6235; williams-sonoma.com.

3. Juicer

Admire the sleek lines of this elegant porcelain objet, or grab a few oranges and make freshly squeezed juice. $74. BRITT VILLADSEN: 323-655-1908; fitzsu.com.

4. Herb Saver

How many times have you used a teaspoon and tossed the bunch? Fill the reservoir with water and slide this mini-greenhouse into the door of your refrigerator. $30. PREPARA: 888-878-8665; prepara.com.

5. Egg Tray

Ditch the foam carton and give your eggs a stylish new home. Handmade ceramic holder comes in two sizes to cradle six or twelve of your precious Grade A's. $150–$200. MAEMOUGIN: 212-331-1390; maemougin.com.

6. Fire Extinguisher

Finally, a fire extinguisher that's beautiful. It's also light enough to operate with one hand. Just pull the pin and press the button. $30. HOME HERO: 800-430-3376; homedepot.com for stores.

7. Shades

From the maker of some of our favorite placemats and rugs—Chilewich—comes a new line of shades in 17 variations. Best of all, they can be wiped clean. 36" x 60", $288 (as shown). THE SHADE STORE: 800-754-1455; theshadestore.com.

8. Wall Oven

French doors! Pull the left door open and the right one swings open automatically. Available in 190 colors. Blue Star 36" Double Gas Wall Oven, $7,198 (as shown). PRIZER-PAINTER: 610-376-7479; bluestarcooking.com.